your money earns more at Great Western Savings

To begin with, if you invest your money at Great Western now — or by the 10th of this month, you'll earn top interest from the 1st! Not only that, but Great Western pays the highest interest on insured savings, a full 4% per annum. And your money, up to $10,000, is completely insured by an agency of the federal government. Furthermore, interest is paid or compounded four times a year so that even your interest can earn interest in a very short time at Great Western. Add it all together, and you'll understand the reason why thousands of people are switching their money to Great Western! Come into any one of our six offices to open your account — or simply mail us your check, money order or present passbook. But do it by the 10th, and earn interest from the 1st.
